

CLEVELAND VETOES
THE BLAND BILL.DOCUMENT SENT TO BOTH HOUSES AT NOON.

A Delegation of Western and Southern Democrats Visited Him to Make a Final Plea—Proceeding in Congress Yesterday—Another Behring Sea Proposition.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—[Special]—President Cleveland sent his veto of the Bland bill to both houses at 12:30 today. The failure to send it to congress yesterday had no significance. A delegation of western and southern democrats went to the white house during the morning to make a final plea to the President to sign the bill. He listened to them pleasantly. This was all the basis there was for the talk which went around the capitol that the bill might be signed.

NO QUORUM YESTERDAY.

Contested Election Cases Go Over in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—In the house yesterday Mr. Outwaite (dem., Ohio), from the committee on rules, reported a rule limiting debate to two hours each on the two election cases of O'Neill vs. Joy and English vs. Hilborn, the final vote to be then taken. Mr. Outwaite demanded the previous question on the adoption of the rule, and the vote resulted 179 yeas and 1 nay, one more than a quorum. The speaker voted in the affirmative.

Mr. Reed criticised the disposition to hustle through these cases without discussion. He moved to recommit the rule, with instructions to report a rule allowing further time.

The speaker ruled that the motion to recommit was equivalent to a proposition to amend. Amendments were not in order after the previous question had been ordered, and therefore the motion of the gentleman from Maine (Reed) was not in order.

The vote on the adoption of the special rule was 172 to 7, including the vote of the speaker, and it was agreed to, a bare quorum voting.

The resolution of the committee on elections declaring John J. O'Neill entitled to the seat for the Tenth district of Missouri was read, and Mr. Patterson of Tennessee was recognized on the side of the majority report and Mr. Daniel of New York on that of the side of the minority.

Mr. Bartholdt (rep., Mo.) contended that the republican vote of Missouri amounted to 73 per cent of the democratic vote, and the gerrymander had enabled them to secure a representation of only 15 per cent of the democratic vote. Now it was proposed to cut this down half. The election machinery was all in the hands of the democrats.

Mr. Griffin (dem., Mich.) argued against the majority.

Mr. Joy (rep., Mo.), whose seat was the question at issue, argued that the recount of the ballots had built up his majority. The grounds of the contest, he claimed, as finally made were not valid in the note of contest served upon him as required by law.

Mr. Reed (rep. Maine) said it was proposed to disfranchise over 900 voters on account of the fault of the judges.

Mr. Brown (dem., Ind.) claimed they were bound to observe the statute of Missouri, whether it gave power to election judges to disfranchise voters or not.

The vote then occurred on the substitute for the report of the majority of the committee presented by the minority, declaring Mr. Joy entitled to his seat. The vote resulted: Yeas, 102; nays, 146. The substitute was rejected. Mr. Burrows (rep., Mich.) moved to reconsider and Mr. Springer (dem., Ill.) moved to lay that motion on the table. The republicans precipitated another filibuster by making the point of no quorum on the division and the roll call was taken, the republicans refraining from voting. The vote resulted: Yeas, 137; nays, 8. The house then adjourned.

TO GUARD BEHRING SEA.

Proposition to Extend the Closed Zone to the Forty-Second Parallel.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Ambassador Bayard has been pressing upon the attention of the British foreign office the necessity of speedy action upon the proposition to replace the existing modus vivendi relative to the seal fisheries by one on broader lines to conform more closely to the decision of the arbitrators. There is reason to believe that Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador here, will soon receive authority to consummate such an agreement, by which the small differences between the two parties to the treaty respecting the extent of the closed zone will be adjusted on the basis of the forty-second parallel.

LONDON, March 28.—The attorney general, Sir Charles Russell, will introduce into the house of commons a bill providing for the proper enforcement of the Behring sea arbitration. There is no question of a new modus vivendi and it is understood that the bill will not be opposed.

Desires the Treaty Abrogated.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Dolph introduced a joint resolution declaring that the treaty between the United States and Great Britain regarding the construction of a ship canal at Nicaragua—commonly known as the Clayton-Bulwer treaty—is no longer in force.

Mr. Peffer offered a resolution directing the finance committee to prepare a bill for the repeal of all laws authorizing the secretary of the treasury to issue bonds or other interest-bearing obligations without specific authority of congress. It was temporarily laid on the table.

The McGarran bill was taken up and debated and the senate adjourned.

Want a Health Bureau Formed.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The medical profession was well represented at a hearing yesterday before the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce upon the bill establishing a bureau of public health within the department of the interior. The duties of the bureau would be to collect and diffuse information upon matters affecting the public health and the preparation of regulations for securing the best sanitary condition of vessels from foreign ports and for the prevention of the introduction and spread of infectious diseases in the United States. The advisory council is to consist of one member from each state.

Sugar Bounties Must Go.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A plan for abolishing the sugar bounties without waiting for the passage of the tariff has been informally discussed by representatives radically opposed to bounties in general and to the sugar bounty in particular. It has been suggested to members of the ways and means committee that a bounty repeal amendment be attached to the legislative and judicial appropriation bill. The committee has taken no action on the suggestion, as it would indicate a fear that the tariff bill might fail.

Anti-Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Col. Hatch thinks the chances for the passage of the anti-option bill as at present decided upon are excellent. He feels sure of a large majority in the house and says that he knows personally of five or six senators who voted against the old bill who will vote for the present measure. As to the action of the President, the colonel says: "This bill, being a revenue measure, and not, as in the former case, a prohibitory one, will almost certainly meet his approval, but I have never talked with the President about it or heard of any expression of opinion from him."

Jenkins Will Not Be Summoned.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Mr. Boatner does not know whether Judge Jenkins will come before his committee or not. "We shall not summon anybody, as we have not money enough to pay witness fees, but we will hear all who may desire to submit evidence to us. We have assurances that there will be enough witnesses to warrant the trip. We shall stay in Milwaukee for three or four days, but shall not visit any other city."

Popular Election of Senators.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Representative Bryan of Nebraska yesterday made a statement before the committee on the election of President and Vice-President and representatives in congress in behalf of his proposed amendment to the constitution, providing for the election of senators by direct vote of the people whenever they make provision for the same by statute or otherwise. The committee expects to reach a decision on the question at its next meeting.

Internal Revenue from Illinois.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Illinois, in the amount of internal revenue paid the government, is far in advance of any other state of the Union. Last year it paid the enormous sum of $33,000,000, about double that of any other state. The principal reason for this lies in the fact that the whisky trust has a large number of its distilleries located at Peoria, the Fifth district of Illinois. The tax on whisky paid there last year was about $18,500,000.

Free Coinage Is Up Again.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A bill to provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver was introduced by Mr. Stewart of Nevada and laid on the table for the present.

FOR AN OPEN INVESTIGATION.

Railway Men Want to Participate in the Jenkins Hearing.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 29.—The members of the American Railway union are afraid that the investigation of Judge Jenkins' strike order by the congressional committee, which will begin Monday, will be conducted in secret, and are taking steps to see that the investigation is not only complete and searching but will be open. It is the purpose of the railroad committees to have the committees present at every meeting. In order that they may come properly prepared to enforce their demand to be present at the proceedings they will be furnished with proper credentials.

Chairman Wilson Is Convalescing.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Mrs. William T. Wilson, wife of Representative Wilson, chairman of the ways and means committee, says that her husband was well on the way to regaining his health. He was up and about, and while still weak he was rapidly getting back his strength. He needed no further nursing, so that his son had gone on a fishing expedition and Mrs. Wilson had come north.

Ninth Mine Victim Found.

PLYMOUTH, Pa., March 29.—The ninth victim of the Gaylord mine disaster has been found.

NO MEN FOR COXEY
IN MILWAUKEE.

MEETING TO FURNISH RECRUITS IS ADJOURNED.

Army of Seventy Nine Men Is Trudging Along Through a Snow Storm East of Alliance—The Out-of-Work Man Begins to Show in the Ranks of the Commonweal.

MILWAUKEE, March 29.—The meeting which was to furnish Milwaukee recruits for Coxey's army has been postponed indefinitely.

ALLIANCE, O., March 29.—Coxey's army of seventy-nine men are plodding through a driving snow storm to-day feeling very blue. It is said, though, that the character of the commonweal army is undergoing a change. The out-of-work man is coming to the front. Eight new recruits joined last night and many more are expected. To-day the brigade marches to Columbiana, sixteen miles away. They will halt for lunch at Leetonia, where Coxey is expected to join them and where a hot lunch is to be given the men by the townspeople. The Columbiana camp is to be called Camp Trenton.

COXEY'S MEN IN JAIL.

Advance Pickets Treated as Vagrants by the Washington Authorities.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Advance guards of Coxey's army are likely to fare badly in this city. The police, with disregard of the great mission of the unemployed, intend to persist in treating as vagrants wanderers found here and pretending to belong to the Good-Roads brigade. The vagrancy laws of the district are stringent and give the two police justices ample power to commit to the workhouse for thirty days or more persons found without visible means of support. Monday night the police found seven of the incoming legion curled up asleep in a car in the freight yards of the Pennsylvania railroad company. When taken to the police station they protested that they were Coxey's vanguard, but the justice failed to see the distinction between ordinary tramps and Coxey's pickets, so he gave each of them thirty days in the workhouse.

Gen. Frye's Men Are Starving.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 29.—The situation at Sierra Blanca, where the industrial army is camped, is critical. Many members of the army have been without food for three days, they are in a starving condition, and their attitude has become so threatening that the Southern Pacific officials fear that they will commence committing depredations unless removed from the place. Gen. Frye will use every effort to restrain them from committing any overt act. The people of El Paso have raised money sufficient to pay for a train of seven cars with which to haul the remaining 500 men to San Antonio.

Pittsburg Ready for the Descent.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 29.—A large military band is being organized in the Fifteenth ward in the interest of Coxey. Prof. Joseph Burkhardt is at the head of the enterprise and expects to have a fully organized band ready to meet Coxey's army when it reaches here. The band is to accompany the commonweal to the capital. James Shipman of Allegheny, an old-time greenbacker, has agreed that if Alderman Harkins raises a company of 100 men to join Coxey's army he and other citizens will furnish all the necessary food to last the company ten days.

Bound for Pittsburg.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 29.—Thirty-four recruits for Coxey's army arrived here last night on the Washburn road en route for Pittsburg, Pa., to join the main body there. This contingent are unemployed coal miners from the vicinity of Pittsburg, Kan., and are mostly young men. Charitably inclined persons in Topeka and Kansas City are paying their traveling expenses.

Denver's Contingent Starts Saturday.

DENVER, Colo., March 29.—The Denver contingent for Coxey's army met yesterday and decided to take up the march for Washington Saturday morning. It numbers about fifty men and expects to be reinforced at Colorado Springs and Pueblo. The men will not walk, but expect to capture an east bound freight train.

Kearsarge Court-Martial Closes.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 29.—The taking of testimony in the Kearsarge court-martial closed yesterday. A statement by Commander Heyerman in his own defense was read claiming that no testimony had been given showing he was in any way guilty of neglect and that the accusation was a surprise to him.

Double Murder at Jasper, Fla.

JASPER, Fla., March 29.—Mrs. Turner, an aged woman, and Miss Espey, aged 15 years, have been murdered. The condition of the girl shows that she had been outraged. The head of each victim had been beaten to a jelly. Should the perpetrator of the crime be found a lynching will follow.

Big Fire in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 29.—The large building at Wade and Barton streets occupied by Louis Lipp, furniture manufacturer, and the Smith Novelty company was destroyed by fire, which began at 12:30 yesterday morning. Loss so far estimated at $75,000; insurance unknown.

BRECKENRIDGE TELLS
HOW HE WAS LED.MADELINE WHOLLY TO BLAME
HE DECLARES.

He, An Unsuspecting Middle Aged Congressman of Guileless Mind, Fell Into the Trap of the Seventeen Year Old School Girl—Sensation in Court.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Colonel Breckenridge took the stand this afternoon, and the second sensational point in the trial was reached. The gallant colonel told calmly of how the designing seventeen-year-old school girl "entrapped" him. The court room was crowded. There was the same crowd present yesterday. It couldn't have been larger, the "limits of the court-room and the corridors forbade. The crowd came for the same purpose—to listen to the song which the gentleman from Kentucky would sing in his own defense.

After a couple of witnesses had been examined, one to prove that the letter purporting to be from Miss Pollard to the gentleman from Kentucky was not a forgery, and the other, the gentleman's secretary, who told of finding the letter in the gentleman's law office, the young lady in the case entered. Miss Pollard has improved in appearance. Her complexion is now clearer and there is the flush of health in her cheeks. She glanced at the gentleman from Kentucky as she would at something disagreeable. The gentleman raised a newspaper before his face and kept it there till she took a seat at Lawyer Carlisle's side. The witness then resumed. He turned out to be one Rankin Roselle, and swore that at one time he and Miss Pollard were engaged to be married. Then in answer to persisted questioning he told of the little details of their love affair. Miss Pollard looked at him fixedly and he hung his head. He looked ashamed of himself, and he probably was. He showed a tintype of Miss Pollard and himself taken together and the jury examined it. The gentleman from Kentucky took a look at it, but Miss Pollard manifested no curiosity in the relic. Then Roselle told some other secrets of their engagements. They were not sensational. A little later the court adjourned for luncheon.

When the proceedings opened again Judge Wilson, of the plaintiff's council, requested that the disputed letter, which had been in the hands of the Breckenridge forces, be placed in the custody of the clerk of the court. He also requested that "Colonel" E. B. Hay, the expert on hand-writing, be recalled for further cross-examination.

A long and tedious scene followed. Expert testimony at the least is comparatively worthless, and in the identification and comparison of different specimens of handwriting is especially so. Mr. Wilson proved that Col. Hay had been wrong in another trial in which he had been called as an expert, and his evidence is not thought likely to have much weight with the jury.

The deposition of Hiram Kaufman, a Lexington butcher, was taken up after a cross-examination of Rosell had been concluded. Kaufman alleged that he had met Miss Pollard in an improper place, he having gone there with Rhodes, the latter having introduced him to Miss Pollard. The deposition also ascribed objectionable language and actions to the plaintiff.

In a deposition John A. Brandt, a school janitor of Lexington, said he met Madeline Pollard in Lena Singleton's house, she then appearing 17 years of age. He said he had often taken her riding.

The deposition of W. L. Jones, an alderman of Lexington, showed that he had been acquainted with the family of Prof. Brown of Wesleyan college in 1883 and 1884 and had known Miss Pollard. She had told him that Rhodes was paying her tuition, that she had promised to marry him, but did not intend to carry out her contract, as he was an ignorant old farmer. With this the court adjourned.

The great event on the program will be the cross-examination of Col. Breckenridge. The "meeting" between Judge Jeremiah U. Wilson and Breckenridge has been looked forward to as the climax, the most sensational episode in this most sensational trial.

Minnesota Republican Clubs.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 29.—The Minnesota state league of republican clubs met in the Exposition hall yesterday. President John Goodnow of Minneapolis called the convention to order and appointed the committee on resolutions. The committee on credentials consisted of the league committeemen of each county. Shortly after an address of welcome by Mayor Eustis Gov. McKinley appeared and the republican editors of the state held a meeting in the Century hall in the afternoon and formed an organization to be known as the Minnesota Press association. The objects are to distribute campaign material and aid one another in the coming campaign by combining forces.

Chinese Treaty Meets with Favor.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—It transpires that the senate committee on foreign relations did take action upon the Chinese treaty yesterday, and later, while the senate was in executive session, reported it to the senate for ratification. A motion to make the treaty public was objected to and was not pressed.

OLD INDIANA LANDMARK GONE.

Parker House at Plymouth Burns—Chicago Firemen Hurt During a Fire.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., March 29.—The Parker house, the oldest established hostelry in northern Indiana, was burned at 6 o'clock yesterday. The building was constructed principally of wood and in an hour after the first alarm had been sent in the hundred rooms had been entirely gutted. The loss will reach $8,000. The old Parker house, which adjoined the new structure, was an old Michigan road landmark, the Indians formerly using it as a guide back in the '40s. It has ever since remained as one of the most noted structures in this part of the state.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 29.—The extensive stove and heading mill at Bailey, Newaygo county, burned yesterday, throwing fifty men out of employment. Loss, $20,000; insurance, $15,000.

ALTON, Ill., March 29.—At an early hour yesterday fire broke out in the principal business block of Upper Alton and before it was extinguished. The total loss is estimated at $15,000, with an insurance of nearly $8,000. The village has no fire department and no water supply, but the heroic exertions of the citizens, with buckets of water drawn from cisterns, finally succeeded in spite of a heavy wind.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., March 29.—The town of Sutherland, sixteen miles west of here, was totally destroyed by fire last night. A high wind was raging at the time, and the efforts to stop the fire were of no avail.

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, Mass., March 29.—The Nobscot block, owned by E. S. Rice of St. Louis, Mo., was burned. Loss, $40,000.

Firemen Hurt at Chicago.

The men fell with a ladder that suddenly collapsed beneath their weight a distance of twenty-five feet to the roof of the engine house, upon which the ladder had been raised. All the injured were reported last night to be not seriously injured, and they will recover rapidly when they get over the shock.

Fatal Accident on the Illinois Central Near Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss., March 29.—A serious wreck occurred on the Illinois Central railroad two miles north of this place about 7:30 last night. Two through freight trains collided with tremendous force, completely wrecking both. The engines were telescoped and practically ruined. Some of the crew are killed or seriously hurt, but particulars are not yet obtainable.

The noise of the collision is said to have been heard a mile. Physicians from the city have been summoned. Trains will be delayed some time.

TURIN HONORS THE DEAD.

Impressive Funeral Services Over the Remains of Louis Kossuth.

TURIN, March 29.—The funeral services over the remains of Louis Kossuth were held in the Evangelical church yesterday. The city was crowded with sightseers and the streets presented a most remarkable appearance owing to the immense number of Hungarians in full national costume, who mingled with the throngs. The streets, through which the funeral procession passed were lined by the municipal guards and on all sides were to be seen mourning emblems and crape-draped flags.

The coffin inside the church rested upon a handsome catafalque and was covered with flowers. Standing pictures around the catafalque was a guard of honor of Hungarian students in the national costume. This guard of honor will accompany the remains to Buda-Pesth with the representatives of the municipality of that city.

Near the catafalque were the sons of Kossuth, his sister and his nephews. Pastor Peyrot delivered the funeral address, in Italian, eulogizing Kossuth's private virtues and patriotic devotion to Hungary.

CAN NOT TAKE JURISDICTION.

Denver Supreme Court Judges Will Not Act Against the Mayor.

DENVER, Colo., March 29.—After hearing arguments on the appeal from Judge Glyn's decision quashing the writ of injunction against Mayor Van Horn and the new fire and police commissioners, the Supreme court judges announced that they could not take jurisdiction in the case of errors. Unless the old members, Orr and Martin, retire temporarily a writ of mandamus will be obtained by the new board to compel them to vacate. Yielding to pressure from Gov. Waite, the new board has selected H. M. Behyler, a populist, for chief of police, instead of ex-Chief Farley. William Roberts, a captain of a fire company, will succeed Julius Pearce as chief of the fire department. Counsel for the old commissioners obtained from Judge Allen in the District court an injunction restraining the new fire and police board from taking office or proceeding with reorganization of the department.

Fast in a Deadlock.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., March 22.—The Fourth district judicial convention is in a deadlock and there seems to be nothing in sight indicative of an immediate break. Seventy ballots were taken yesterday without a choice being made. About 4 o'clock the nominating speeches were concluded and the balloting began. Twenty ballots were recorded and not a man left the candidate of his choice. A motion to take a recess until 9:30 at night was voted down by yeas 32 to nays 65. Then came a vote on a proposition to adjourn until 9 in the morning. This prevailed on a viva voce vote.

Some little talk is heard to the effect that Judge Shope may be renominated as a compromise, despite his pronounced declaration that he would not be a candidate. It is barely possible this may be done. The outcome of the snarl is involved in as much obscurity and doubt as it was yesterday morning.

Wrecking Company Surprised.

BOSTON, Mass., March 29.—At the office of the Boston Towboat company nothing is known of the Kearsarge wrecking expedition beyond the information contained in the press dispatches. REV. RE QUA TELLS ABOUT SANSPAREIL.

REMEDY BEQUEATHED TO A LOCAL PASTOR.

Old Doctor Smith of New York Used it in His Practice for Years and Presented it to His Favorite Grandson, Court Street's Pastor—Other Remedies to be Offered.

"Sanspareil?"
"What is Sanspareil anyway?"
Janesville people have been asking this question for the last ten days, ever since local newspapers were sprinkled with black lines repeating the mystic word.

Rev. W. F. ReQua, pastor of Court Street M. E. church, furnished an answer to the question to-day.

Sanspareil is a powerful remedy bequeathed to Rev. Mr. ReQua by his grandfather years ago.

"Away back in the thirties, when the city of New York was a village compared with to-day," said Mr. ReQua, "there appeared from an office window on Broadway one day, a modest sign with the plain inscription, 'Daniel Smith, M. D.' But little importance was attached to the modest sign that marked the advent of one of the most successful physicians that

Aurora while I was located there, for the purpose of having a cancer removed by a knife. A lady friend of hers who knew of the liniment persuaded her to postpone the operation and try it. This she did, and in less than two months was fully restored. I remember, sitting in my grandfather's office one evening, when a messenger called with a carriage and hurriedly drove him to a palatial residence on Fifth avenue. A daughter of the family was suffering with malignant diphtheria, and a council of five eminent physicians had just been held, and the case pronounced hopeless. When my grandfather entered the room and was told of the situation, he said to the anxious parents, 'If these gentlemen have given your daughter up, it is useless for me to attempt the case.' They said: 'No Dr. Smith, we want you to take the case, and we shall not be satisfied until every effort fails.' The old gentleman made a careful examination, finding the throat filled with mucous membrane and the patient breathing with great difficulty. Opening his medicine case he took out a small bottle of this wonderful liniment, that I have named Sanspareil, and taking a feather he applied it deftly to the diseased parts, rubbing the throat, neck and chest with the same application. He watched the patient during the night applying the liniment freely. Before morning the throat commenced to

CHEAPER ARC LAMPS MAY BE OFFERED.

LOCAL CAPITALISTS TALK OF A NEW COMPANY.

Idea of Establishing a Plant to Be Run By the City, Power to be Hired From Some Other Concern Has Been Discussed and Finds Some Favor.

Cheaper electric lights are promised by a number of local capitalists who are looking over the Janesville field. There may be a chance for the council to receive bids. There seems to be an impression that the Janesville Water company is interested in the matter and a reporter interviewed C. S. Jackman, the company's financial agent.

"No, I don't think the water company has ever made any proposition of the kind," he said. "I think, however, the report you hear grew out of a statement I made to Alderman Smith. I intimated to him that a plant could be put in here and lights furnished at a very cheap rate; that the city could, for instance, put in its own lamps and care for the same, and hire their power. I am of the same opinion yet, and there are some who think the council acted hastily in not

RHEA IN HER FAVORITE PART.

"Josephine" Has Made a Hit Wherever It Has Been Played.

Rhea as "Josephine" like Davenport as "Cleopatra," seems to hit the public demand by playing the character in which she is best remembered and liked. There is no doubt that the popularity of Josephine is on the increase, as the numerous inquiries for that play in different towns give proof of the fact. Rhea is supported by an exceptionally strong company this year, including some pretty young ladies, who have the additional merit of being good actresses. Rhea appears as Josephine at the Myers, Friday evening. The sale of seats indicates that she will have a large house.

It is astonishing what wide diversities of opinion there are on the subject of neckwear. That's why we a 1000 and one varieties of ties, from the tie that costs 25c to the tie that the most fastidious with a long rent roll might desire. From the tie that emulates the rainbow in its brilliance to the tie of but one color and that a quiet shade.

We are the only ones about town (as yet) showing the new and most beautiful "3 color effects." Strictly for nice trade. Don't cost so much but it takes a tasty dresser to appreciate the effect produced.

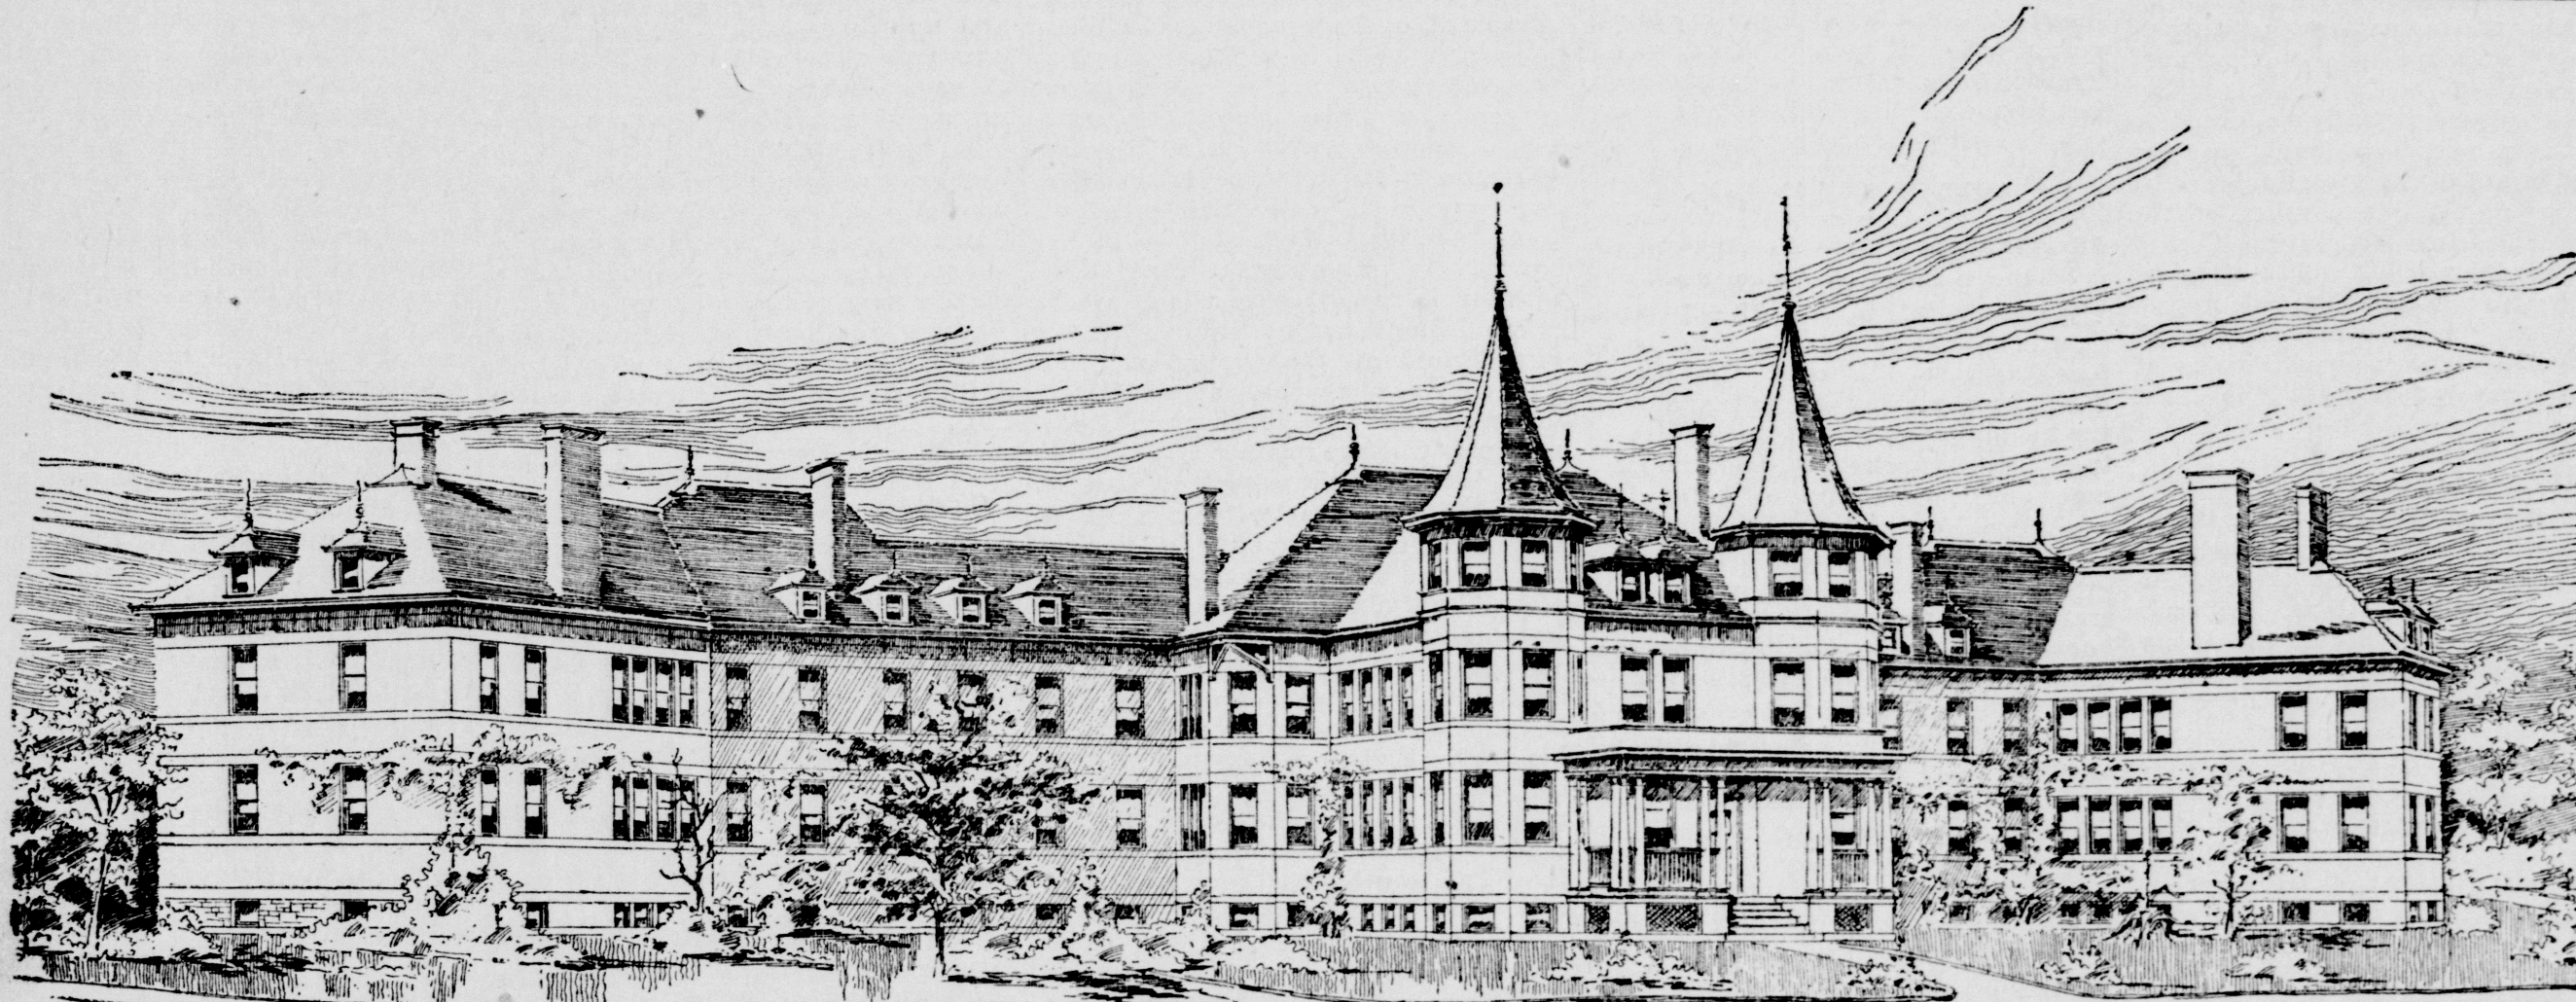

The "stock" bow and 4-in-hand are taking very well for anything so extremely new.

We are showing them for Easter wear now in large varieties.

We would call your attention to our window where we are showing Easter hats, collars, etc.

NEW ROCK COUNTY ASYLUM.

To be Accepted by the Board of Supervisors Tomorrow Afternoon.

ever opened an office in any city. Dr. Smith was a specialist, possessing skill of so rare a degree that for forty years he occupied the same office and developed a practice so remarkable in extent as to be the envy of his brother practitioners. Dr. Smith's specialty was rheumatism, neuralgia, tumors of all kinds, cancer and acute inflammation. He believed in advertising, and for many years he kept before the public a standing reward of one hundred dollars for any case of rheumatism that he could not cure. He was always equally successful with many other diseases. During the later years of his life I had the pleasure of studying in the old gentleman's office, and witnessing his skill in the treatment of many different cases. As a grand son, he took a lively interest in my welfare, and fully expected that I would eventually succeed him.

"When his health finally failed him and he realized that his work was done, he called me to his bedside and said: 'My boy, I have not entirely forgotten you in my will, but I want to place in your hands now this formula which has been the secret of my success. I have used it in my practice for more than forty years, and it has never failed me. I have repeatedly been offered large sums of money for it, and now I bequeath it to you. If you handle it right there is a fortune in it, for in it is an absolute cure for many diseases that have baffled the skill of the most skillful physicians.'

"This was many years ago. Since that time I have kept the preparation in my house constantly, and have given it out freely to my friends. Its workings are simply wonderful. Ten years ago a friend of my wife's was spending a week with us. She was an invalid, and was fully convinced that her life was rapidly being destroyed by that most dreadful disease, cancer. A lump in her left breast as large as an orange caused her constant pain. She found it difficult to use her arm, and could only rest under the influence of opiates. I said to her 'I have a liniment that will at least relieve you of pain and permit you to rest without morphine.' On retiring my wife applied it, and in the morning the lady said: 'I slept like a child all night. What is that wonderful remedy?' 'Oh,' I said, 'it is simply a liniment that my grandfather gave me.' She continued to use it while with us and took a bottle home with her. In six weeks she wrote my wife that the lump had entirely disappeared and, thanks to the wonderful liniment, she was fully restored. This occurred ten years ago. Last fall the lady wrote my wife that she was having a similar growth in the other breast, and asked if we could send some more of the liniment. I forwarded a bottle, and in less than a month she wrote: 'The bunch has disappeared, and I am well again.'

"I recall the case of another lady who was brought to the hospital at clear out, and the patient slept peacefully. In less than twenty-four hours the inflammation was allayed and the young lady was on the way to recovery.

"I could cite many cases that have come under my personal observation. The remedy contains many of the best essential oils, so deftly put together as to form an absorbent that invariably cures rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, inflammation of the bowels, sore throat, diphtheria, and many other diseases of this class. It will remove tumors, goitres, wens and all similar growths. It is equally effective on either man or beast. I have frequently been urged to have it copyrighted and put on the market for the benefit of suffering humanity, but have never seen my way clear to do it until now. In conversation with Dr. H. A. McChesney, the noted eye and ear specialist, I learned that the McChesney Medicine Company would soon be incorporated for the purpose of establishing and conducting a proprietary medicine business. I told him of my remedy and it resulted in a copyright and lease to the McChesney Company for a term of years."

"Sanspareil will be placed on the market at an early date, and I am fully convinced that it will prove a great benefit to suffering humanity."

As Rev. Mr. ReQua intimated, Sanspareil is one of the remedies that will be put on the market by the McChesney Medicine Company. It has no equal as a liniment, and a guarantee to refund the money for every bottle that does not meet the requirements, accompanies every bottle. Sanspareil has come to stay. It should be in every household.

Another remedy that the company will put out will be known as Eyrene.

This is an eye water that invariably cures granulated lids and sore eyes. Dr. McChesney has used it in his practice for years and has found it a never failing remedy.

Curene is another preparation of equal merit for skin diseases, it cures chapped hands, cuts, sores, bruises and burns. Its healing qualities are wonderful. These preparations will be prepared under the personal supervision of E. B. Heimstreet, secretary of the State Pharmaceutical Association. Mr. Heimstreet will have charge of the McChesney laboratory which is a sufficient guarantee that the remedies will be well prepared. Sanspareil will sell for $1.00, Eyrene for 50 cents, Curene for 25 cents. Ask your druggist for them.

Wood.

We have just closed contracts for 10,000 cords Michigan maple and 15,000 cords best oak wood, which we will sell as follows: Maple delivered, four feet long, $5.50 to $6; oak delivered, four feet long, $4.50 to $5 per cord. Sawing, two or three times, fifty cents per cord; splitting fifty cents per cord. Janesville Coal Co., J. H. GATELEY giving opportunity for other parties to bid on the proposition. I don't imagine that the water company would have anything to do with it, but I know of responsible parties who have been figuring on such a scheme."

City Clerk Bates has received a large number of letters from outside parties, asking when bids will be received for putting in an electric light plant in this city, and other information regarding to lighting. These communications have not been answered, as the proposition presented shuts out all competition.

WE HAVE CHANGED

Our Offer.

It was at first intended to make the prize in The Gazette piano contest an "ebony finish," instrument. The instrument chosen was as fine as the Shaw Piano Company build (and there are no finer. Only one change was possible--the substitution of a more expensive case. No better piano, of course, but considerably handsomer.

One week has satisfied us that this is the thing to do. The interest developed in the contest makes the

COACHER PHIL KING.

Cleverest Football Player in the United States.

The fact that Phil King has been engaged as chief coach for the entire football season next fall has been the source of much rejoicing in the Princeton club recently.

His acceptance of this position practically marks the dawning of a new era in Princeton football. The entire college is rejoiced that at last the authorities have not only recognized the crying need of more steady coaching but have succeeded in securing such an ideal helper as King, who will give his whole time to putting the Tigers into championship form and placing Princeton still further in the van. For years Princeton's reverses have been ascribed to one and another cause, till finally, the category being exhausted, those lovers of Princeton who believed that old Nassau was the home of athletics were beginning to lose their faith in the face of so much contradictory sight.

Of these reputed causes of the failures in athletic was the lack of coaching. As 1889 was the last year in which Princeton had won a football championship, coaches were drawn almost entirely from the ranks of the '89 eleven. These players were all star guards, tackles and backs in their day, but few if any of them had kept pace with the development of the game in the last few years.

No one would say that a great amount of good was not done for the Princeton teams by these same men. The truth is they were invaluable, but the idea of players of the old school teaching the new system was wrong. Although some excellent coaching was done by Alex. Moffat, Jesse Riggs, Walter Cash and Hector Cowan, each stayed only a short time, and the unfinished work was continued by coaches who did not know what had been done before their arrival, and who had ideas sometimes diametrically opposed to their predecessors.

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK,
JANESVILLE, MARCH 24, 1894.

To the Electors of the County of Rock:—

Notice is hereby given that a judicial election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock on the third day of April, 1894, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the name of the office and under the appropriate party designation each in its appropriate place below.

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters:

A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone, to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter will make a (X) cross in the square at the right and opposite the name of the candidate he wishes to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office and make a (X) cross in the square at the right on it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen but so that the printed endorsement and signatures of the ballot clerks on outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking same to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

Candidate Michael Murphy's name appears under both the independent and the democratic headings on the city ticket this year. A disgusted democrat suggested that he would probably put his name on half a dozen other tickets with equal alacrity if it were possible.

This isn't a good year to get votes for men running on the democratic ticket. James A. Fathers, T. S. Nolan, George Hanthorn,
 A. G. Anderson, M. P. Richardson and the straight republican ward tickets will go through with a rush.

Cherry street furnishes a fair example of Candidate Lutz' skill as a street maker. He left that highway in such shape that aldermen haven't felt justified in spending any ward funds on it since. They called it "throwing good money after bad."

Republicans are keeping step to the music of the local campaign. The standard bearers are all capable and enthusiastic, and there are no signs that the column will be broken an-where. The victory is almost certain for the people are with the republican hosts.

The democratic candidates are striving to form all kinds of combinations in order to gain scattering votes here and there for any candidate on their ticket whom they have the faintest hope of electing. They have no fixed principles at stake in the campaign.

Republicans all have a warm word for John Brown who showed his good faith by withdrawing from the canvass when he saw he was likely to injure the republican ticket by running.
 He is likely to be remembered in time to come.

The men republicans have named on the ward tickets are men to inspire enthusiasm. Big votes will be polled, and nothing but deliberate "colonization" can prevent republican triumphs in at least four wards.

HOPE FOR THE HAIRLESS.

Professor Birkholz, of Chicago. Gives Hope to Those Afflicted with Baldness—
 A "No Cure, No Pay" Treatment.

Professor G. Birkholz, of Chicago, the eminent German specialist, who for years has devoted his time and talent to the study of the hair follicles, and who has evolved the most successful treatment for baldness the world has ever known.

He will carefully examine each case and candidly inform the inquirer whether his baldness can be cured and the hair be restored. These examinations are made without charge.

In all cases where there are any hair follicles remaining undestroyed by age or disease the professor will undertake a cure, and if he does not effect a restoration of the hair he will ask no pay.

The remedy is an imported one, and the treatment given by the professor is his own, and cures where all others fail. If your case has been pronounced incurable do not take it as a final answer until you have seen Professor Birk-holtz and received his opinion.

Many persons have small bald spots throughout the hair. These increase in area and in time produce baldness. In such cases the hair follicles need nourishment. Prompt treatment will bring them into activity and restore the hair.

The success that has attended Professor Birk-holtz everywhere enables him to give a positive opinion in each case presented to him. Those who are bald or are threatened with baldness should not delay treatment, but call upon the professor at once. 1011 Masonic Temple Chicago.

Hand this notice to any first-class drug store and he will get the remedy for you at once, if he has not got it in stock.

For sale by Prentice & Evenson.

G. A. R. NOTICE

We take this opportunity of informing our subscribers that the new Commissioner of Pensions has been appointed. He is an old soldier, and we believe that soldiers and their heirs will receive justice at his hands. We do not anticipate that there will be any radical changes in the administration of pension affairs under the new regime.

We would advise, however, that U.
 S. soldiers, sailors, and their heirs, take steps to make application at once, if they have not already done so, in order to secure the benefit of the early filing of their claims in case there should be any future pension legislation. Such legislation is seldom retroactive. Therefore it is of great importance that applications be filed in the department at the earliest possible date.

If U. S. soldiers, or their widows, children, or parents desire information in regard to pension matters, they should write to the Press Claims Company at Washington, D. C., and they will prepare and send the necessary application, if they find them entitled under the numerous laws enacted for their benefit. Address:

MAN WHO LOVED HIM SHOT W. L. CLIFFORD.

GHASTLY ROMANCE IN THE [CHICAGO AFFAIR.]

Guy T. Olmstead, Who Attacked the Janesville Letter Carrier Was Affectionate to Oppressiveness Whenever He Mentioned His Name—Mob Threatened to Lynch.

His most intimate friend was William L. Clifford's assailant. The young Janesville man's shooting by Guy T. Olmstead was one of the most dramatic incidents ever witnessed in the streets of Chicago, and the circumstances that led to it make a story as remarkable as it is unfathomable. It suggests psychological problems which no one may solve. Clifford may recover, but is very near death this afternoon.

Olmstead imagined himself infatuated with the man whose death he sought, and it is said Clifford exercised a sort of involuntary hypnotic influence over him. The two men had known each other a year or more, and with me there for an hour or more and declared that he would never have anything to do with me again.

Intended Murder and Suicide.

"At last I resolved to shoot him and myself, too. I had often threatened to do so. In the meantime I was taken ill and treated at the Polyclinic Hospital, on Chicago avenue. Then I visited my old home at Fairmount, where my mother lives. I returned to Chicago a month or more ago, but not

The Shooting.

until to-day did I feel able to carry out my resolution to kill Will and myself. I waited for him at the post office and you know what followed. I am only sorry I was prevented from killing myself. I do not want to live."

The police secured several letters written by Olmstead to Clifford. They all breathe the warmest regard for the carrier and were remarkable productions.

Captain McGrath, superintendent of the city delivery, says Clifford complained about Olmstead's attentions being annoying. "The friendship was broken," said Captain McGrath, "when Olmstead became too demonstrative in showing his regard for the other man. I know he wrote letters to Clifford threatening to kill him."

Janesville Relatives Startled.
Clifford's Janesville brothers knew nothing of Olmstead, and had never heard the name until questioned by a Gazette reporter yesterday afternoon.
Clifford lived in Chicago with a younger brother, Elmer D., who was attending business college. On frequent occasions their sisters and a brother were their guests at the boarding house. Both the young men have entertained the household with guitar and piano music, and at one time both were members of the Fourth Baptist church choir. Clifford was a favorite with the boarders, and Mrs. Worrall, keeper of the boarding house, in talking of him yesterday, said, "He was good as gold."

At 3 o'clock this afternoon a dispatch from Chicago said Clifford had a chance of recovery.

System of Thieving Which Extends to Many Parts of the County May be Uncovered—Officers Hope For Important Developments By the End of Next Week.

The exposure of an elaborate system of thieving, extending to many parts of the county, is promised by the police. Clarence W. Wixom, of Fulton, is again an inmate of the Rock county jail, he being locked up this afternoon in default of $1,000 bail for his appearance in municipal court April 4. The immediate charge against him is of burglary on the premises of J. B. Humphrey, of Rock.
Wixom was arrested last fall soon after the burglary and gave bail in the sum of $700, which was forfeited and paid, he skipping for parts unknown. Finally Sheriff Bear learned that Wixom was working near Des Moines, Iowa. He visited Iowa and found his man at work on a farm.

The sheriff with the prisoner arrived home at noon. Wixom was taken before Judge Phelps and waived examination, and in default of the above bail was locked up. Important developments are expected.

the scene in quick time and found the fire out. The filling of the house with tain constituted the damage.

"My peerless darlings of sun and rain,

—MRS. HELEN RICH.

CARNATION Triple Extract PINK FOR THE HANDKERCHIEF

An Exquisite Odor
Fragrant,
Delicate

HAND IN HAND.

When spring was young and life was new,
Love was our only friend and guide,
Sweet were the bowers he led us through
And sweet our going side by side.

Then summer came, a golden flood,
And still we followed hand in hand,
Love was the music in our blood
And love the glory of the land.

Rich autumn fell, and winter drove
The fruitfulness from the air,
But wrapped in warm, soft robes of love,
What recked we if the world was bare?

So round again we come to spring,
Strong for another year's embrace,
The birds are whist to hear us sing,
The sun is dazzled by our eyes.

For hand in hand, where'er we go,
Earth under foot and heaven above,
Love is the only life we know,
And every breath we breathe is love.

—New York Advertiser.

PART OF A LIFE.

"So you want my little girl for your wife, do you?"

The speaker, from a glance at his snowy hair and mustache and sorrowful dark eyes, one would suppose to have been a man well along in years, but on looking more closely at the well knit, supple form reclining at ease in the study chair it was discovered to be an "old head on young shoulders."

His deep, musical voice was half sad, half tender as he continued to address the young man, who, standing before him, was nervously toying with a book that lay on the table at his right.

"Perhaps I'm not quite as surprised as you thought I would be. You have played together as little children, as boy and girl you were companions, and now that you are a man and Maud is a woman your hearts naturally turn to each other, and I will see my dearest wish realized. The friendship that has existed between your father and myself for 16 years will be augmented by the union of our only children. You are a good, manly fellow, Hugh, but a trifle hot headed and impulsive. Learn to control yourself, boy; learn to control your self."

"You have much of my disposition, and I would save you from the rocks on which my happiness was wrecked— you and my little girl."

"Sit down, Hugh, here, near me, and I will tell you a story—an answer to the question you have so often had on the tip of your tongue to ask me, 'What was it that turned the hair of such a comparatively young man white?' Tush, boy, don't look confused—you couldn't help wondering."

"Well, to begin with, 20 years ago I married one of the fairest, sweetest little women that ever won the love of man. I was a reporter on an evening paper, ambitious and struggling to rise in my profession. We rented a little house in the suburbs, and although we had not much of this world's goods our home was a very happy one for the first six or eight months. Then little bickerings and fault finding began. Bitter quarrels finally grew out of the most trivial things, and scarcely a day passed that there had not been angry words spoken by one or the other."

"We loved each other dearly, and we tried hard to avoid all this. We had resolved again and again in our moments of repentance that we would treat each other with more consideration, be more forbearing, but it seemed useless—our troubles increased."

"So it went on for several months. I had become morose and gloomy, and Nora's poor little face had grown so pale and sad that the sight of it made my heart ache."

"One lovely morning in early summer, when the roses that clambered over our cottage walls were in bloom and nodding their pretty heads at us through the windows, when the birds, newly mated, were singing their joy and the air was heavy with the perfume of flowers and breathed only love and peace, the crisis came."

"While I was hurriedly getting ready to go to the office something occurred to detain me. I was annoyed and spoke sharply to Nora. She answered me in an insolent, taunting manner that always enraged me. Our words grew hotter and hotter and more extravagant. In my anger I applied a shameful epithet to her."

"'Coward!' she almost shrieked as she sprang toward me, her face distorted with rage and defiance."

"What devil possessed me I do not know, but quick as a flash I raised my hand and struck her in the face with all the force I could summon."

"She was such a slender little woman that she had not the strength to withstand my powerful blow. With a low, heartrending cry she sank to the floor. Almost before she fell my senses returned. I realized what I had done, and falling on my knees beside her took her in my arms, kissed the poor bleeding lips I had so brutally lacerated, and with my tears dropping on her face implored her forgiveness. She seemed completely broken. Her anger was all gone, and there was a startled, grief-stricken look in her eyes that cut me to the heart."

"She lay motionless in my arms while I begged her to forgive me. Then she said softly: 'It doesn't matter, dear. It was my fault as much as yours. We will never let it happen again. Now go to work—you are late already.'"

"She said it so strangely, with such a queer look in her eyes, that I would not consent to leave her. But she insisted, and when she bade me goodbye she said, taking my face between her hands and drawing it toward her: 'I love you with all my heart, my darling husband. I will love you for ever and ever. Now goodbye.'"

"What a long, long day that was! It seemed as if my work never would be finished. My heart was so full of love for Nora."

"I bought a bunch of Jack roses on my way home to remind her of our courtship, when they were the flowers I always brought her. I did not enter the house by the front door, as usual, because I wanted to slip up behind her where she was at work getting dinner and surprise her with the flowers and a kiss."

"Softly I opened the kitchen door. There was no sign of any preparation for dinner—everything was in order. 'Perhaps Nora has cried herself sick,' I said to reassure myself. I went to the bedroom—everything in order there, but the room was empty. Nervously I hurried through every room, looked into every closet, went down cellar, out to the coal shed, up to the attic. I didn't expect to find her in any of these places. I was sure she had gone away, but I must look for her somewhere."

"I went back to the bedroom again and there found the note she had left for me pinned to my pillow."

"Poor little tear stained letter! Here it is, worn in the folds and yellow with age—this is what she wrote:

"Don't think it is because I am angry at what you did this morning that I go. I cannot stay, because I cannot make you happy. You will at least live in peace without me. I love you, my husband, and I always will. Think of me sometimes and of how much I loved you. But, no! it makes you sad to think of me, forget me. God bless you. I love you. NOIRA."

"That was all. It gave no clue. Was she living or dead?"

"If living, I was determined to find her. I searched for her everywhere, advertised, traveled—all in vain. Nearly three years passed, and not a word had I heard from her. I had almost come to the conclusion that she was dead. During that time it was that my hair turned white."

"I was working as a reporter on a New York morning paper, gathering news and searching for my wife."

"One bitter cold night the last week in January I was sent to report a fire that had broken out in a large tenement house in one of the poorest quarters of the city. The greater part of the building was in flames when I arrived. The firemen saw that it would be useless to try to save it and were directing their efforts to getting out the frightened inmates. I did what I could to assist them in rescuing the poor wretches."

"At last, when we thought they were all out the smoke cleared away from a part of the building, and by the light of the flames that leaped up we saw the figures of two women in a window. One of them had a bundle in her arms and was preparing to leap to the ground. I motioned her back. In a moment a fireman moved a ladder to the place ascended and returned with one of the women, a little hunchback. The other, the one with the bundle, clasped it convulsively, tottered and would have fallen to the ground but for the fireman who had just reached her. Quickly he descended, bearing her unconscious form."

"Guess she's about gone. Get a place ready for her, quick! Let me lay her down!" he shouted.

"Off came my overcoat, and the fireman laid her on it."

"I stooped to see if she was badly burned, and also to see what was in the bundle. A little child about 2 years old, round eyed and frightened, looked at me from the wet, steaming blanket that was wrapped around it. A pretty little thing, I thought as I disengaged it from the blistered arms that clasped it. The woman was badly burned about the body. I drew away the towel that she had around her head and saw—my wife! pale and worn, but still the same features, the same clustering brown curls on her forehead. My wife, given back to me like this! Frantically I called for help, for a doctor. There happened to be one in the crowd."

"He looked at Nora's burns and shook his head. There was no hope. She would probably never open her eyes again, but she did. The great dark eyes looked up at me, and the lips murmured: 'Maudie—baby.'"

"I held the baby over her. She smiled faintly and said: 'Maudie—perhaps—papa—will— Tell him—I always—loved—I—'

"But her eyes closed, and her head fell against my breast. She was dead."

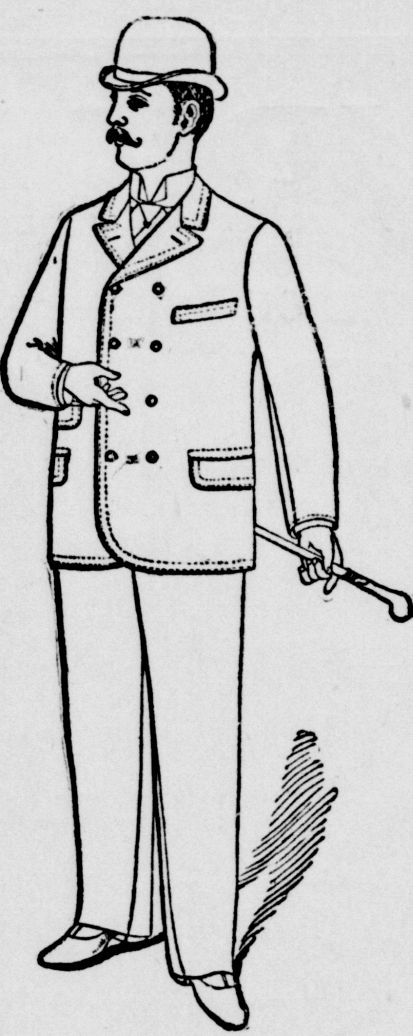

"Did she recognize me in those few moments? God only knows. I could not tell."

"The crippled girl who was with her in the window, and whom she insisted on the fireman rescuing first, told me how she had met Nora in the hospital over two years before, when Maudie was born, of Nora's kindness to her and of her weary struggle for bread, and she it was who found and gave to me her wedding ring and a tiny locket with my picture in it that was fastened around her neck when she died. She had never parted with them, no matter how great her poverty was."—New York Advertiser.
